SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference session. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information.—EDITOR.

SOUTH GERMANY CONFERENCE

During the continuance of the World War no sessions of Conferences were held in the territory occupied by the Central Powers. With the advent of peace, normal conditions are slowly being reached. South Germany Conference has held a session, at which delegates to the General Conference were elected, but of which no returns have been made for the Minutes. We accordingly announce that the Conference is still in existence, and that future issues of the Minutes will probably contain complete Appointments and Statistics.—EDITOR.

DEATH ROLL

From the earliest GENERAL MINUTES up to the Fall issue of 1901, it was a custom to publish brief memoirs of the preachers who had died during the year. Why the custom ceased the Editor does not know, only that with the growth of the church each year was adding to the size of the Minutes, and thus to the expense of publication. Frequently during the present administration memoirs have been sent in, but could not be used. There have been frequent calls for them and questions as to why they were not used.

With the consent of the Publishing Agents, the Editor is attempting a one-line memoir for each preacher. He has sent a letter to each Conference Secretary and a second one to those who have not responded to the first one. The following table shows the responses:

BISHOP JOHN HEYL VINCENT

Bishop Vincent was born February 23, 1832, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. He had but slight opportunity to secure an education, but with a determined will he made up the deficiencies by a life-long habit of study and self-improvement. When quite a young man he came North and at the age of nineteen began to preach in the Baltimore Conference. Later he transferred to the New Jersey Conference, and after a few years went to the Rock River Conference. When the Civil War came, he was pastor in Galena, Ill., where U. S. Grant was engaged in business. Mr. Grant attended his church and was always an interested listener until the time he entered the service of his country.

This young pastor was greatly interested in the children and youth of his congregation, and diligently sought to improve the character of Sunday school instruction and information. He established what was known as his "Palestine Class," in which they studied the countries of the Bible, and the persons, places, habits and customs of the people were made as real as possible. His work was soon recognized as of such importance that in 1866 he was made Secretary of the Sunday School Union of the Methodist Episcopal Church, which position he held for twelve years when he was elected a Bishop; he was effective in the office until 1904, when, at the age of seventy-two, he was retired. It did not retire him from service, for he spent his time preaching, writing and lecturing as long as he was physically able to do so. When on May 9, 1920, in Chicago, he quietly fell asleep.

No one can think of Bishop Vincent without recognizing his worth to the world through the great Chautauqua Movement. It was an effort somewhat after the camp-meeting form to give an added impulse to the work of Sunday school instruction; so in 1874 there was established on Chautauqua Lake in the State of New York what was called an "Assembly." The exercises were composed of sermons, lectures, concerts, stereopticon exhibits, classes in Bible study, and Sunday school methods with periods of recreation thrown in. This place and its work soon became very popular and remains to this day, and is one of the greatest monuments that could be erected to any man.

"The generations he worked for are now bearing the burden of the world's work. If they are doing it with stronger faith and broader intelligence, it is due in no small measure to the influence of this one man, which reached into millions of American homes, and wherever it went was a force always operating for intelligence and piety. He founded no colleges, but he built himself into the life of his time. If you seek his monument, you must look about you. It is written in the mind and soul of Methodism."

BISHOP MATT S. HUGHES

Matthew Simpson Hughes was born in West Union, Va., February 2, 1863. He was the son of a Methodist preacher, Dr. Thomas B. Hughes, and the oldest of six children. He was given the distinguished name of Matthew Simpson, which he carried proudly throughout his life and which seemed to inspire him to worthy efforts. His early aspiration was the law, but the call came to him and he went gladly into the ministry and gave faithful and fruitful service to all the churches where he labored. He joined the Iowa Conference in 1888 and the same year was married to Miss Harriet Frances Wheeler of Grinnell, Ia., who survives him together with two sons and a daughter.

From 1888 for twenty-eight years he was continuously in the pastorate, serving Chestnut Street Church, Portland, Me., Wesley Church, Minneapolis, Independence Avenue Church, Kansas City, and First Church, Pasadena. His larger ministry was almost entirely in the West, where he had an ever-widening circle of friends and a sphere of influence and power which was recognized by all denominations.

He was a member of four General Conferences, and his gifts were quickly recognized, so that for a long time he was spoken of as an Episcopal possibility. In 1916 at Saratoga Springs, he was elected and sent to the Portland Area, where he at once entered upon a period of leadership that made him a great power. He was a splendid presiding officer in the Annual Conferences, and was genial and lovable among the preachers and people. If he had lived, he would have been sought for in many of the areas of the church. It seems to human thought that his death was very untimely, but "God's ways are past finding out," and we will never know in this life what was His purpose in this sudden removal, but his influence will abide. Beyond his own immediate family he leaves behind him a younger brother in the Episcopal Board, who himself is of the highest order and whose services to the church will tell with greater influence every year.

REV. GEORGE PECK ECKMAN, D.D.

Rev. George P. Eckman, D.D., was born at Gouldsboro, Pa., January 8, 1860. and died suddenly Monday afternoon June 28, 1920. He was a son of the parsonage, his father having been a member of the Wyoming Conference many years ago.

Dr. Eckman was a student of the Wesleyan University in the class of 1884, and received the degree of A.M. in 1891, graduated from Drew Theological Seminary in 1886, and was made Ph.D. by the New York University in 1897. Syracuse and Wesleyan conferred on him the degree of D.D., and Syracuse also the degree of LL.D.

He joined the Newark Conference, and after serving four churches, was transferred to New York Conference and became pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church in New York City. After Dr. Buckley resigned as Editor of The Christian Advocate, he was elected to fill that position. He was a brilliant editor and a writer of much ability, but the editorship was a type of life he did not enjoy, and he had a longing for the pulpit, so in 1915 he resigned his position as editor and was appointed to the pastorate of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal Church in Scranton, Pa. It is the great church of the Conference, and with his gifts and ability he soon came to a very marked place of leadership. He was modest and unassuming, but the Conference pushed him to the front, and twice elected him to the General Conference. At the last session at Des Moines, he was Chairman of the Committee on Courtesies. No one who heard him as he presented the various visitors to the body will ever forget the splendid addresses given on those occasions; they were so apt, so brilliant, so courteous that his coming to the platform was really looked for with pleasure.

His going away was very sudden, as almost like a flash of lightning, after having spoken in the interests of a cause of much local interest, he sat down, and was gone. His memory will long be cherished in the church where he was so successful, as well as in the church at large. "He rests from his labors, but his works do follow him."
